Dear Malcolm

Further to our recent correspondence, I can confirm that The Duke of Edinburgh's Award no longer 'endorses' or 'approves' any particular First Aid Courses.

However, I am happy to confirm that the Award supports the use of the Emergency First Aid Response course for Participants undertaking their Award. We are happy to recognise this course as relevant for the Award particularly as it is approved by both the HSE and RYA.

May I take this opportunity, through you, to wish the Participants every success in completing their Awards.
